

KDOC-TV and CIF-SS expand partnership on the Amtrak Pacific Surfliner Game of the Week

ORANGE, Calif., Dec. 9, 2019 /-- KDOC-TV, channel 56, and the California Interscholastic Federation, Southern Section (CIF-SS) and are pleased to announce the expansion of the Amtrak Pacific Surfliner Game of the Week on KDOC-TV.

In the first year, the Pacific Surfliner Game of the Week featured 10 basketball games. This year KDOC-TV will telecast 20 local basketball games featuring CIF-SS matchups and selected Big West Conference basketball games. The expanded broadcast agreement provides CIF-SS member schools with a platform to showcase their athletic talent through the 2021-2022 season. CIF-SS schools feature the number one player in the country (ranked by ESPN) as well as 5 of the top 25 schools in the nation. The Big West conference features UC Irvine, who made an exciting run in the NCAA tournament last season.

KDOC-TV and CIF-SS expand partnership on the Amtrak Pacific Surfliner Game of the Week to telecast 20 local basketball games.

"I want to thank KDOC and General Manager Jack Peck their continued support of the CIF Southern Section," stated CIF-SS Commissioner of Athletics. "We are so appreciative of their efforts in helping showcase the outstanding product that we have to offer. We look forward to seeing more great games on KDOC this year."

"We are excited to once again partner with the CIF Southern Section to bring incredible high school basketball to the 5.2-plus million homes in the Los Angeles TV market. Last year was hugely successful and this years' games will be can't miss TV." said KDOC-TV President and General Manager Jack Peck "The talent is getting better every year, and this years' schedule will allow us to showcase even more of it. We'd like to thank our returning title sponsor, Amtrak Pacific Surfliner, as well as our presenting sponsors, In-n-Out and Wingstop for making this possible."

The games will be called by long-time Southern California based announcers, Randy Rosenbloom and Paul Westphal.
