

Amtrak Pacific Surfliner and LA Tourism Team Up to Promote Soccer Matches Taking Place in Los Angeles This Summer

Riders can receive 20% off Pacific Surfliner fares this summer during the soccer tournament.

LOS ANGELES, March 30, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- As Southern California prepares to welcome the world for a summer of internationally watched soccer matches, the Los Angeles – San Diego – San Luis Obispo (LOSSAN) Rail Corridor Agency, which manages the Amtrak® Pacific Surfliner® service, and Los Angeles Tourism & Convention Board announced a new partnership today designed to help fans experience Los Angeles and the greater Southern California region with ease—on match days and beyond.

Whether traveling from San Diego, Orange County, Ventura, or other coastal destinations, soccer fans can rely on the Pacific Surfliner train service as a stress-free, scenic way to arrive in Los Angeles for June and July matches. Travelers can also use the train to attend fan events and explore beaches, attractions, and cultural destinations throughout Southern California during their stay.

Pacific Surfliner now offers an additional daily roundtrip between San Diego and Los Angeles, giving fans more flexibility to build unforgettable memories on and off the field. Fans across Southern California will experience this partnership firsthand as a brightly wrapped train car travels along the 351-mile coastal corridor to build excitement, celebrate the region, and remind riders of the world's most-watched soccer matches coming to Los Angeles this summer.

"Southern California is built for moments like this – world-class sports, iconic destinations, and a connected coastline," said Jason Jewell, LOSSAN Rail Corridor Agency Managing Director. "By partnering with the Los Angeles Tourism & Convention Board, we're making it easier for soccer fans from around the globe, as well as local supporters, to experience Los Angeles without the stress of traffic or parking, while also discovering everything Southern California has to offer."

As part of the partnership, travelers can unlock a 20% discount on Pacific Surfliner fares to and from Los Angeles during the tournament period:

"Los Angeles is ready to welcome fans from near and far this summer," said Eileen Hanson, Chief Marketing Officer of the Los Angeles Tourism & Convention Board. "Pacific Surfliner makes it easy for visitors to experience LA like a local by arriving sustainably, exploring beyond the stadium, and discovering the diverse neighborhoods, beaches, and iconic attractions that make Los Angeles such a dynamic global destination."

Fans can find official event listings and regional activations by visiting LA Tourism's 39-day calendar of experiences. One of the Fan Zone special events will take place at Union Station on June 25 to 28, 2026, making Pacific Surfliner one of the easiest ways to experience the excitement – no parking required.

Most Pacific Surfliner trains offer spacious seating, free Wi-Fi, a café car, and sweeping coastal views, making the journey part of the experience. Visitors can arrive directly in downtown Los Angeles or easily connect to the Metro World Cup direct shuttle, local transit, rideshare, and event venues before continuing their adventure to coastal cities like San Diego, Santa Barbara, and San Luis Obispo.

For soccer fans planning a summer trip centered around the world's biggest matches, Pacific Surfliner and Los Angeles Tourism offer a winning combination: convenient rail travel, exclusive savings, and a front-row seat to everything Southern California has to offer.
